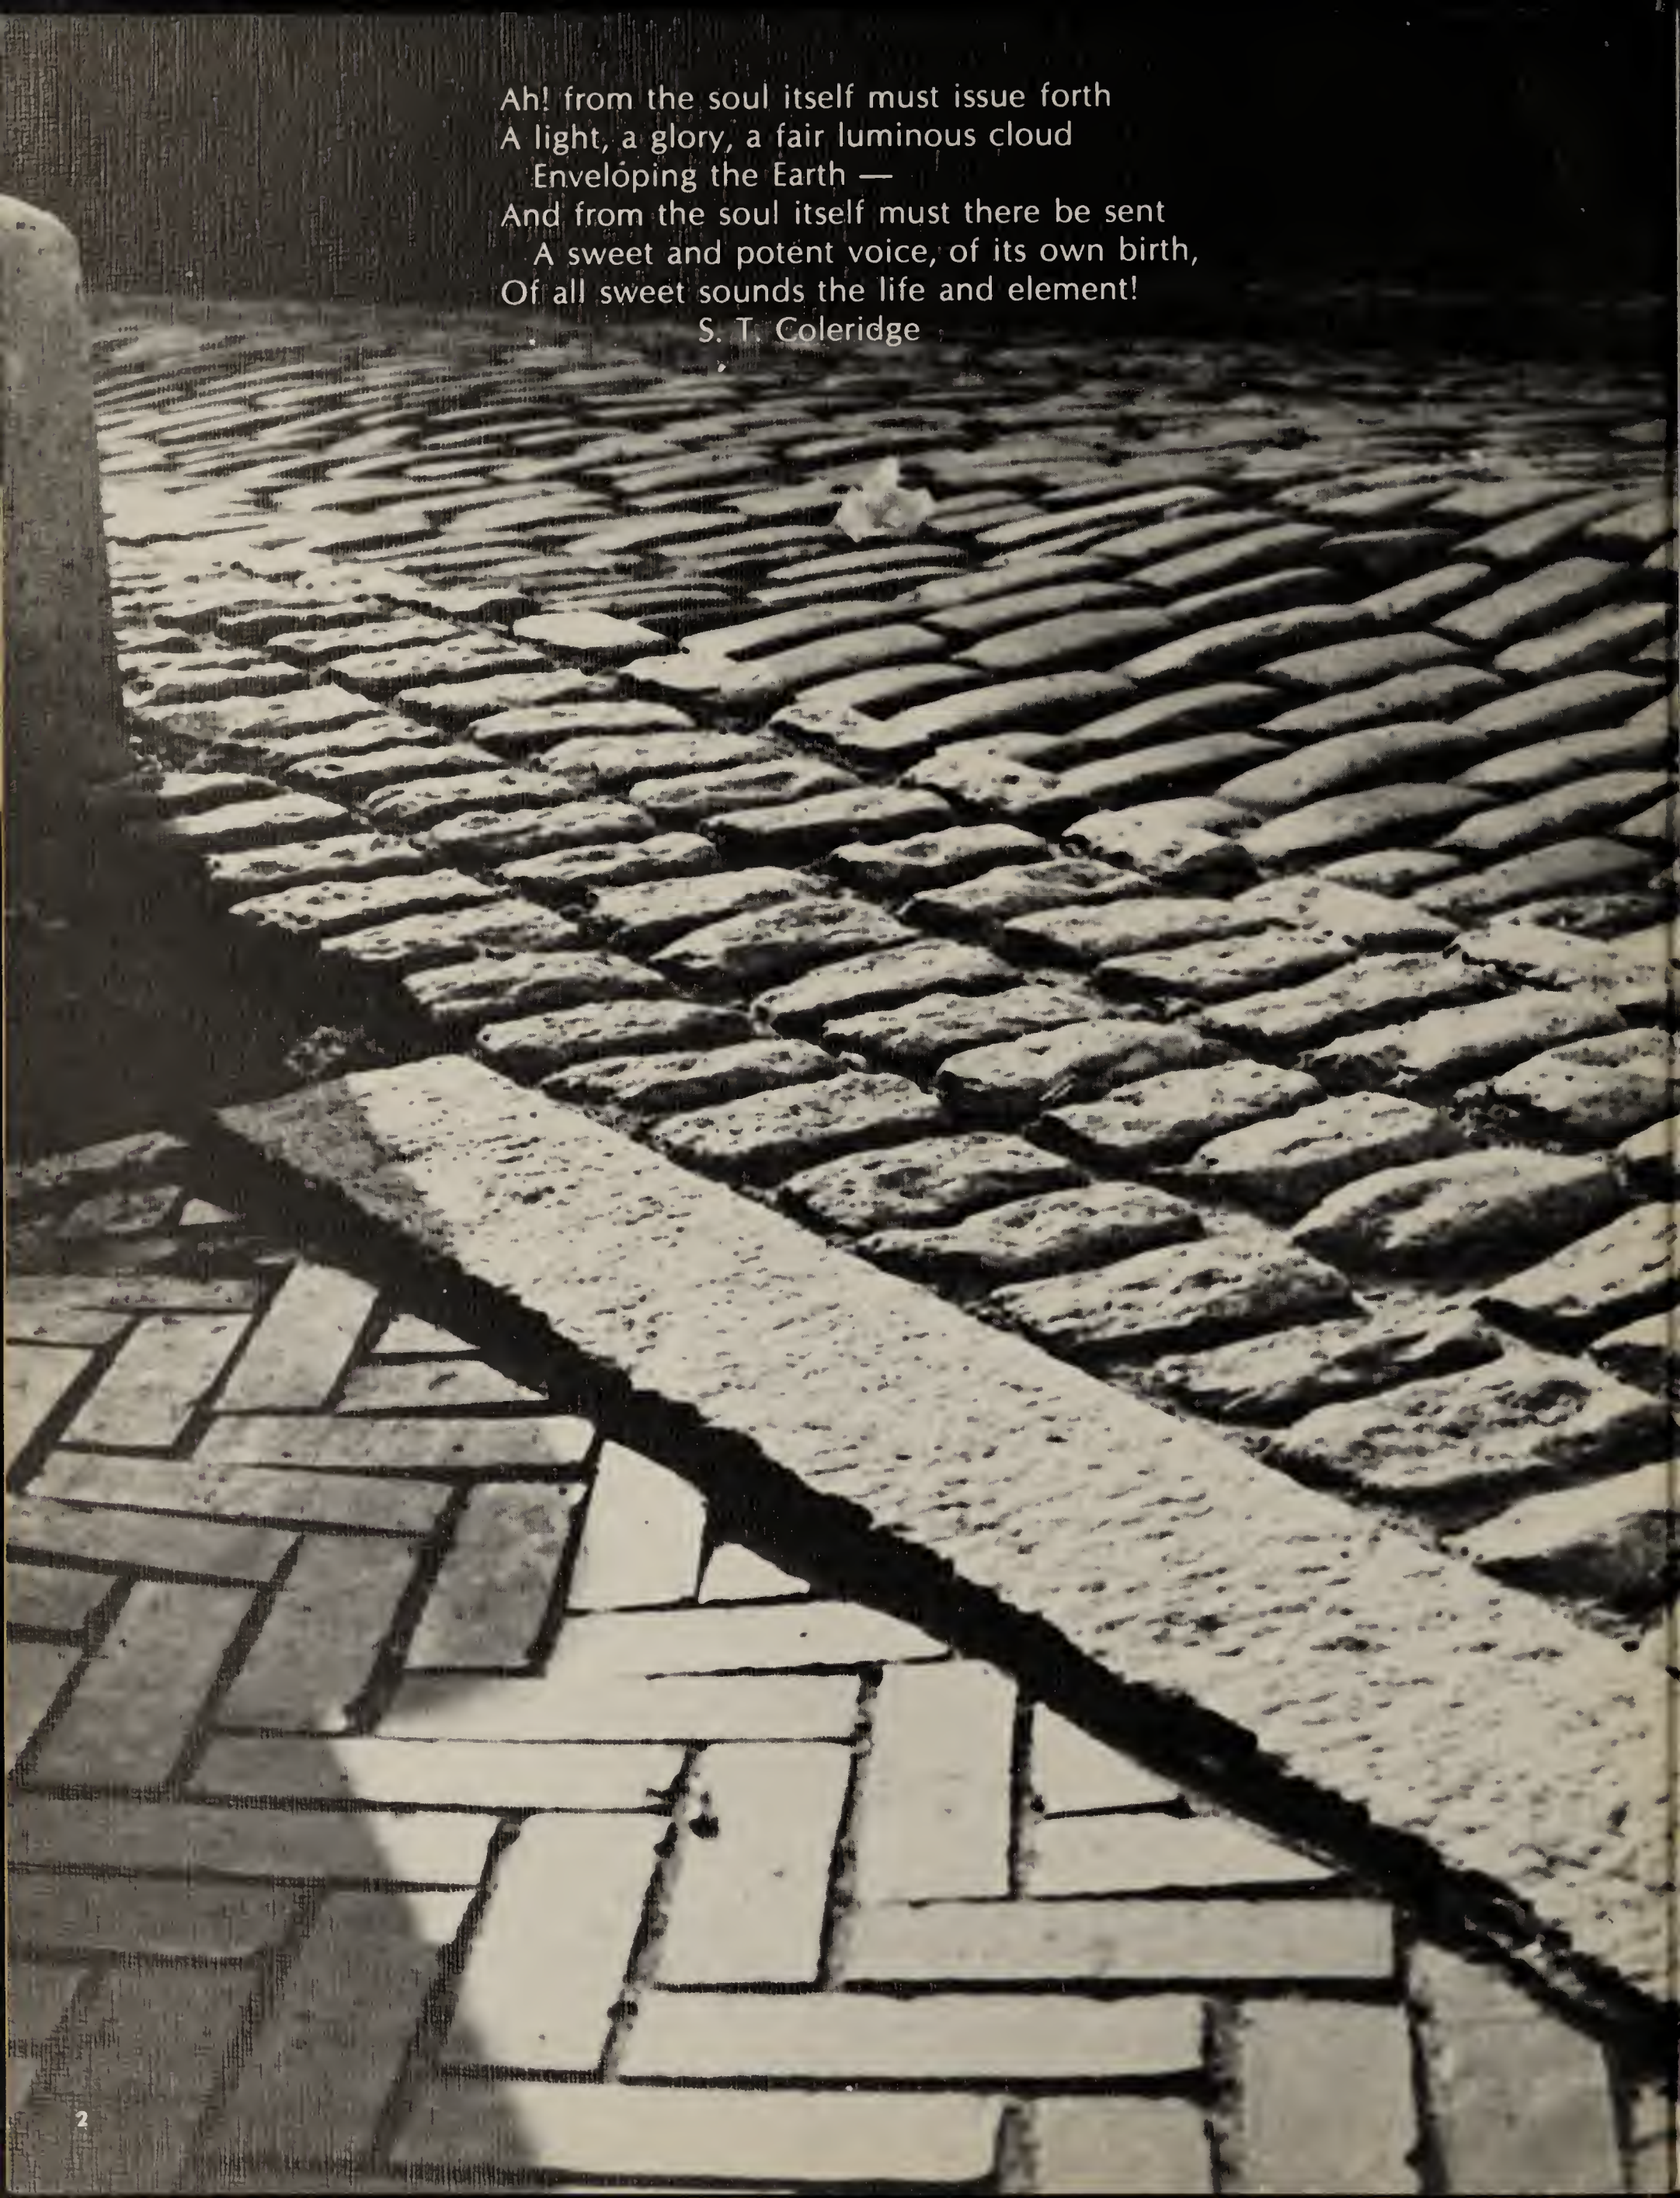
Locust Valley, New York



Ah! from the soul itself must issue forth
A light, a glory, a fair luminous cloud
  Enveloping the Earth —
And from the soul itself must there be sent
  A sweet and potent voice, of its own birth,
Of all sweet sounds the life and element!
S. T. Coleridge

Where there is creation there is progress. Where there is no creation there is no progress: know the nature of creation.

Upanishads

Yea, if thou criest after knowledge, liftest up thy voice for understanding.
Proverbs 2:3

It is often simply from want of the creative spirit that we do not go to the full extent of suffering. And the most terrible reality brings us, with our suffering, the joy of a great discovery, because it merely gives a new and clear form to what we have long been ruminating without suspecting it.

In secret pleasure, secret tears
This changeful life has slipped away
As friendless after eighteen years
As lone as on my natal day.

There have been times I cannot hide
There have been times when this was drear
When my sad soul forgot its pride
And longed for one to love me here.

MATT STEVENSON

Never will I be able to put all the feelings, all the hopes and dreams I have for Life into a few short sentences. For I am only me, a small creature within a vast universe. But I can say this . . . I will never, in all my life, give up my stand for what I believe. I know there is a God. For some He exists in poetry, in Nature, within one's self, within others; for me, He is Life and all that it encompasses. He is my Light, my spiritual Food; He is everything that all people search for all their lives and, sadly enough, often die without ever discovering.

Whether or not you believe in my concept of Life and God, whether your God exists in poetry, Nature, yourself, or in others, a never-ending attempt must be made to include others in your belief. For alone, you will never survive, nor will those around you. We must make an effort, an effort to avoid conflict, hate and selfishness. Until this has begun, all persons, I fear, shall live and die in ignorance.

Soul is feeling depth,
the ability to reach someone.
It's being a part of what

I believe for every drop of rain that falls
a flower grows
I believe that somewhere in the darkest night
a candle glows
I believe for everyone who goes astray
someone will come to show the way
I believe.
I believe that above the storm
the smallest prayer will still be heard
I believe that someone in the great somewhere hears every word
Every time I hear a newborn baby cry
or touch a leaf
or see the sky
Then I know why —
I believe.

Is that Jim Bebry, the actor?
No, it's Jim Bebry, the athlete.
Maybe it's Jim Bebry, the scholar.
Doubtful.
Hey, is that a shotput in his hand or the world?
I've heard he was once an Indian Chief.
Yeah — and he was King of the forest, too.
You know, I think I'd rather be Jim Bebry than

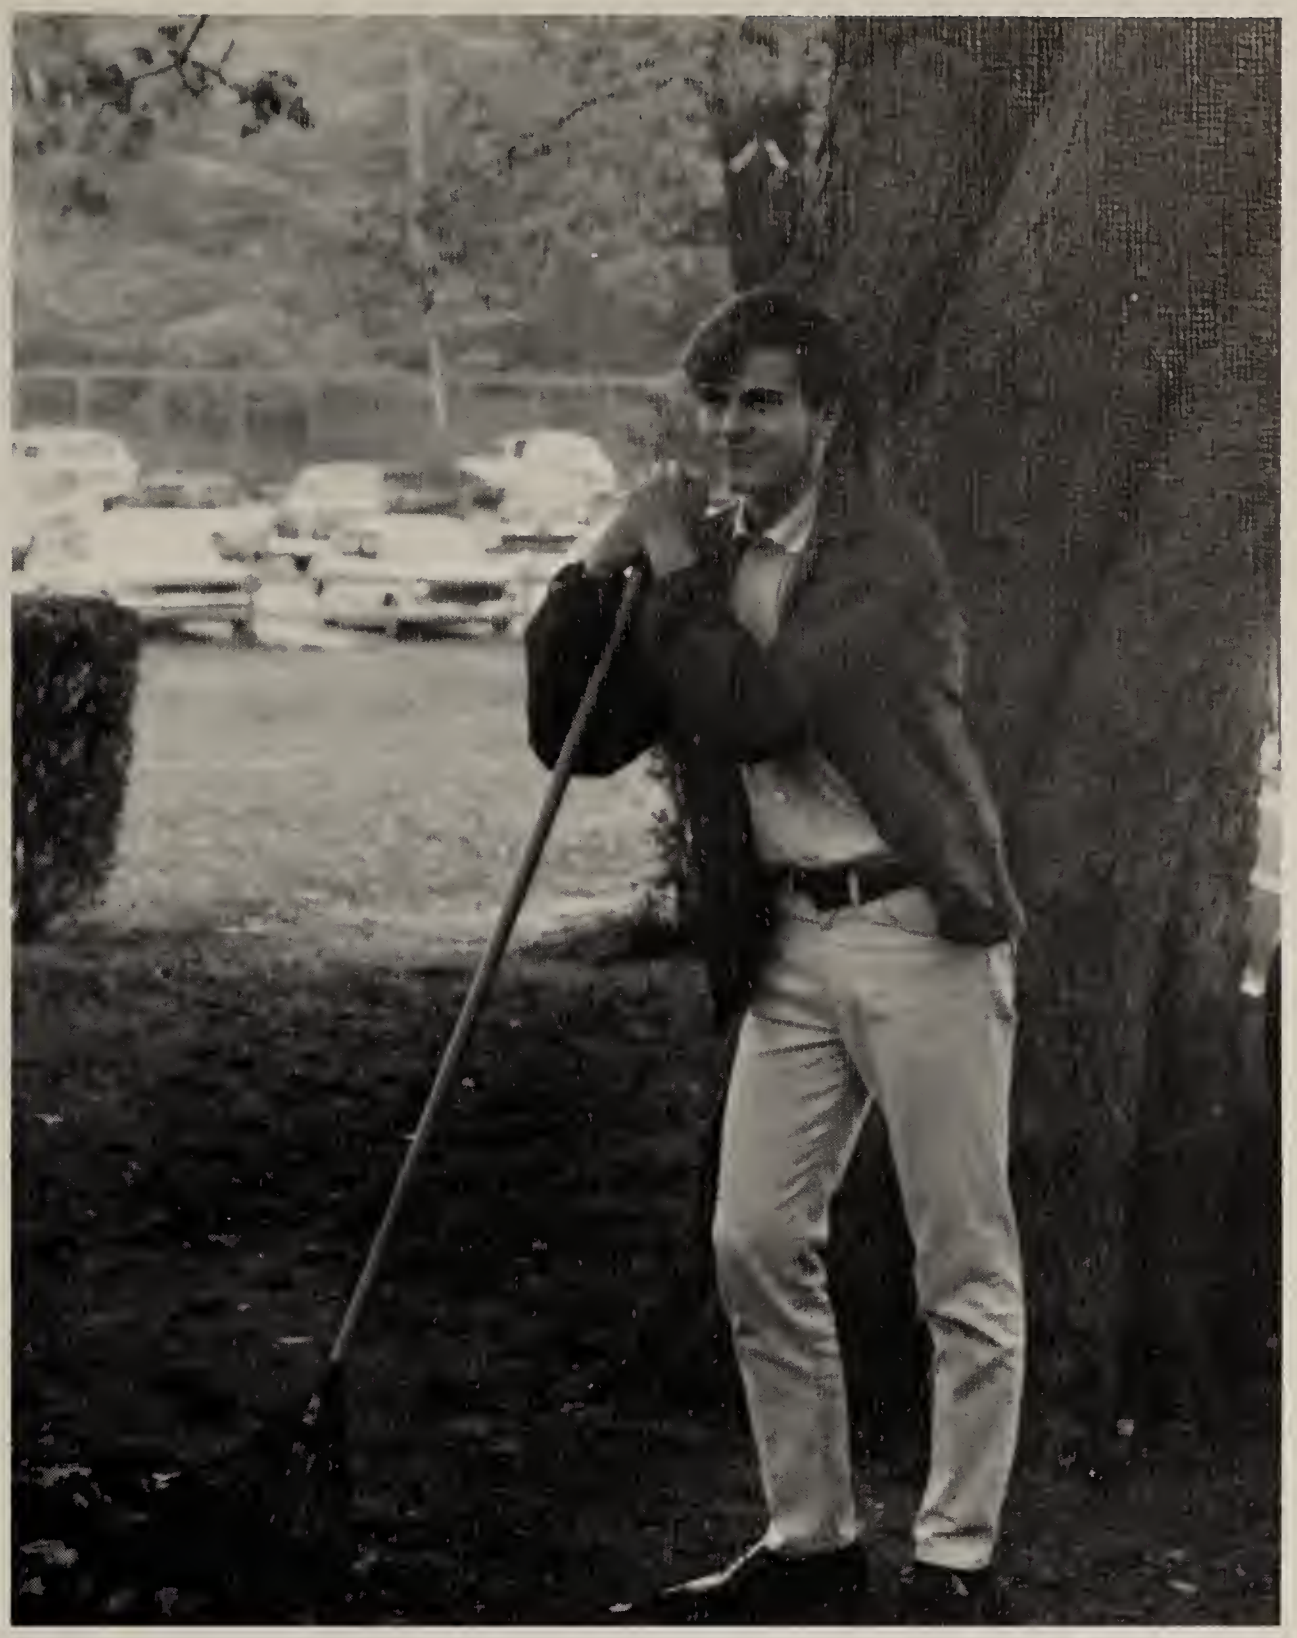
KEVIN GLYNN



I am a part of all that I have met;
Yet all experience is an arch wherethrough
Gleams that untraveled world, whose margin fades
Forever and forever when I move.
How dull it is to pause, to make an end,
To rust unburnished, not to shine in use!
And this gray spirit yearning in desire
To follow knowledge, like a sinking star,
Beyond the utmost bound of human thought.
